San Diego County Treasurer-Tax Collector Voluntarily Releases 2003/2004 Office Calendars and Travel Expenses

San Diego County Treasurer-Tax Collector Dan McAllister today voluntarily released his daily office calendar and his business travel records for 2003 and 2004 for public review.

“The people have a right to know. Openness, transparency and full disclosure are at the core of the values I embrace as an elected public official,” McAllister said. “When I was elected in November of 2002, the voters of San Diego spoke loudly of the need to have a Treasurer-Tax Collector who would be open and honest. The trust the voters placed in me is sacred and I think my actions today in releasing this information are in keeping with that trust.”

As Treasurer-Tax Collector, McAllister is responsible for the timely billing and collecting of more than $3 billion in property taxes annually and managing the County Investment Pool with assets of more than $4 billion. He has 125 employees in 5 offices throughout San Diego County and a $14 million annual budget. Additionally, McAllister currently serves as Chair of the County’s pension system, San Diego County Employees Retirement Association (SDCERA) with assets of $6.1 billion. McAllister is serving in the last year of his second 3-year term on the Board of Directors of the San Diego Convention Center.

Travel records released by McAllister include those related to County travel and travel on behalf of the County Retirement and Convention Center Boards.
